

PRESS RELEASE
For immediate release

Réseau en immigration francophone de la Saskatchewan
NEWS RELEASE

New employee at the RIF-SK

Regina, April 16, 2019 - The Francophone Immigration Network of Saskatchewan (RIF-SK) announces the arrival of a new employee.

The position of Project Officer for the implementation of the Welcoming Francophone Communities initiative of Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) has been filled. RIF-SK is pleased to welcome Sandrine Lebon to the team. Ms. Lebon works out of the office of the Association communautaire francosaskoise de Moose Jaw (ACFMJ), 450 3rd Avenue NW, Moose Jaw (SK) S6H 1K4. She can be reached by phone at (306) 994-1780 or by email: agent@rif-sk.ca.

Sandrine Lebon holds a university degree in travel and tourism from the Kadosh Institute, in Mauritius. She has strong skills in customer service and communications. As an immigrant, she has lived and worked in Saskatchewan since 2015. Settled in the southern part of the province since she arrived, she is aware of the realities of the regions, including rural areas.

"I am very motivated and excited to support the Community Advisory Board (CAB) in its mandate. I will also support the CAB in raising awareness and mobilizing partners and communities to meet the needs of immigrants. As a result of my own immigration process, I understand the importance of welcoming newcomers to facilitate their settlement, integration and rooting in the community. "

We invite you to update your contact lists.

The Réseau en immigration francophone de la Saskatchewan (RIF-SK) is a provincial francophone roundtable. Its mandate is to facilitate the development of services and resources promoting the reception, retention and inclusion of Francophone immigrants in Saskatchewan. The RIF-SK does not provide direct service to newcomers but works with community and government stakeholders to promote Francophone immigration in Saskatchewan.

-30-

Source: Marie Galophe
RIF-SK Coordinator
Telephone: (306) 566-6000 ext.116
Email: marie.galophe@rif-sk.ca