PRESS RELEASE

New employee in the RIF-SK secretariat

Regina, April 3, 2020 - The Saskatchewan Francophone Immigration Network (RIF-SK) announces the hiring of a new employee.

The RIF-SK is pleased to welcome Ms. Mélika Malabo as Communications and Event Manager. With a master's degree in management and international trade, she has solid sales, marketing and communication skills. Ms. Malabo can be reached at communications@rif-sk.ca.

"Building on my previous international professional experience and my interest for immigration issues, I am happy to take on this new challenge." - Mélika Malabo

In addition, Ms. Sandrine Lebon, responsible for the Welcoming Francophone Communities initiative in Saskatchewan, was appointed Project Manager. She can be reached at (306) 513-6515 or by email: Projets@rif-sk.ca.

We invite you to update your contact lists.

The Francophone immigration network in Saskatchewan (RIF-SK) is a provincial Francophone round table. Its mandate is to facilitate the development of services and resources that foster the arrival, retention, and inclusion of Francophone immigrants in Saskatchewan. RIF-SK does not provide direct services to recent immigrants; instead, it works with community and government actors to promote Francophone immigration to Saskatchewan. It is administrated by the Assemblée communautaire fransaskoise (ACF).
